About Us.

We are a logistics company with a solid presence in Italy, the United States and Europe, operating globally since 2008.

Our mission is to optimize our clients' logistics facilities by providing full and customized services. At DVA Express we guarantee a service managed by qualified professionals, with competitive and transparent rates, with no surprises or hidden costs.

Our team is ready to assist you planning shipments, both domestic and international, with a wide range of services standard, express or specialized for each industry.

We simplify the logistics process even further by developing the first dedicated modular platform with white label option that can be integrated with companies' logistics systems via our API to major e-commerce and marketplace platforms.

For international shipments, our AI system calculates customs costs in real-time and provides the HS codes based on product kind, quantity and value. Also, we have a team of certified expert assistants to offer you all the support with the necessary documentation and customs process.
